

FILL IN THE GAPS— GET 50% OFF ELSEVIER BACKFILES!

Start the New Year out right for your library with a great deal from NAPC and Elsevier.

Elsevier, the premier publisher of science and health information, is giving NAPC customers a one-time offer. Like families and businesses throughout America, we know that you're being asked to do more, with less. So that's why we've come up with this great deal. From now until March 31, 2010, you'll save 50% off Elsevier backfiles, some dating to the 1800s. This is a great chance to expand your library's resources and fill in the gaps of your existing collections.

All across the country, people work hard to turn in an honest day's work of quality and integrity. Employees of NAPC and Elsevier are no different. Together, we strive to offer your library the most comprehensive, thorough range of microform content.

Students, researchers, and professionals look to Elsevier as the worldwide leader in health, life, physical, and social science information, and this offer makes it easy for you to give your library's patrons access to their superior products.

HAVE A CUP OF COFFEE ON US

Take advantage of this unique opportunity to fill in the gaps of your library's collections with the world-class content found in the backfiles of Elsevier journals. And if you let us provide you with a quote on Elsevier titles, we'll send you a $25 Starbucks gift card. Because in these times when it seems like even a cup of coffee is a luxury, we'd like you to have one on us—or maybe even two or three.

Act now! Move your library into the fast track of health and sciences research with this great offer. To learn more, to request a quote, or to get a list of Elsevier backfiles, just call your NAPC representative today.
